Chancery and Commercial Counsel

Dr Alex Khan has a wealth of commercial experience that is reflected in his common sense and cost-effective approach to all legal matters. Prior to practising as a barrister, he spent several years in the world of commercial publishing and marketing following the completion of his PhD. Dr Khan is therefore able to utilise his background in both industry and academia to provide a wide-ranging consideration of the many aspects and issues that can arise from even the most simple of legal problems.

Dr Khan is an established practitioner whose experience at the Bar broadly concerns the following areas.

Chancery

- Probate & Inheritance
- Trusts of Land & Cohabitation
- Landlord & Tenant
- Lands Tribunal
- Intellectual Property
- Partnership
- Directors' Disqualification
- Shareholders' Disputes
- Insolvency & Bankruptcy

Personal Injury

- Fatal Accident Awards
- Criminal Injury Compensation Awards
- Road Traffic/Motor Claims

Commercial

- Employment
- Professional Negligence
- Sale & Supply of Goods
- Economic & Personal Torts
- Commercial Contracts & Agreements
- Offshore Companies, Taxation & Trusts

Please note that all potential items of work will be considered on their own merits with regard to suitability, in terms of subject matter, availability, complexity, cost and related criteria. If such work is appropriate for Dr Khan to conduct, his terms of work will need to be agreed in writing prior to his involvement, in compliance with regulations enforced by the General Council of the Bar. www.barcouncil.org.uk

Public Access

Dr Alex Khan is licensed to conduct work for lay clients, i.e., the general public, in all areas of chancery matters and commercial law. Almost all the traditional services that barristers provide are available to the lay client. Should litigation and interaction with other parties be required, Public Access clients will be given advice as to whether or when it would be necessary to involve solicitors to act on their behalf.

Lay clients are reminded that Dr Khan strictly adheres to the statutory identification procedures required by the Money Laundering Regulations 2003 and the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002.

All such procedures apply equally to intermediaries for lay clients, from whom enquiries are also welcomed. In addition, contact with Alex Khan must initially be made through Clerksroom.

Dr Khan endorses and implements the terms of work for Public Access as comprehensively set out by the Bar Council in its website www.barcouncil.org.uk.

In-house training, client conferences, seminars and training events can be organised at Coral House by prior arrangement

Professional Services

Dr Khan accepts instructions from various professional clients throughout the jurisdiction and, where possible, beyond. Advice, consultation and advocacy remain the core services offered to solicitors for both litigation and non-contentious work. Licensed Access work from other authorised professionals, in order to instruct Dr Khan for non-litigation purpose. Guidance will be provided should the involvement of solicitors be required.

Alex also regularly presents seminars, chairs conference sessions, and authors articles and commentaries. If you wish to be added to Coral House's publication mailing list, please contact Coral House.

Coral House also welcomes all levels of interest from other barristers' chambers.
